PRESIDENT CHARLES FRANKLIN PHILLIPS

Dr. Phillips has been President of Bates College since September, 1944. Previous to that date, he served with the National Defense Advisory for three years and in May of 1944 was appointed Deputy Administrator for Rationing in charge of all ration activities in the United States.

An eminent economist, Dr. Phillips has written many important books in his field including several widely used college texts on the subject. He has also authored numerous articles for scholastic, as well as economic, publications.

President Phillips spent a good part of this year in India under the auspices of the State Department's Near East Educational Program. We may indeed be proud to have Dr. Charles Franklin Phillips as our president.

Coach Hatch hands out All-Maine awards to team members Bud DiMaria and Bob Chumbook.

Football

Coach Bob Hatch in his second year as tutor of the varsity football squad produced a hard-fighting eleven that proved to be good competition for all of its seven opponents. Despite the disappointing one and six record, the 1953 version of the Bobcats made a very respectable showing against some very formidable opposition. As in past years the Bates nemesis, lack of depth, was back to haunt the coaching staff.

Beginning the season at home against a very much larger University of Massachusetts squad, the 'Cats matched the visitors throughout the first half. In the second half, however, superiority in numbers began to show as the Bates iron men tired. Warm weather plus the greater forces of the Redmen proved to be too powerful a combination for the home forces who wound up on the short end of a 34-12 score.

In the season's second outing the Garnet eleven travelled to Vermont to take on Middlebury's Panthers.

The Bobcats' two big backs, Bob Chumbook and Herb Morton ran well finding pay dirt twice to give the Bates men a 13-0 victory.

A heart-breaking defeat marked the third week of the season as the varsity gridsters dropped a close 7-6 decision to an evenly matched Hofstra eleven. A first half touchdown run of 55 yards by Morton was nullified by a backfield in motion penalty In the second half the Bobcats broke the scoreless tie on a third period touchdown by Chumbook. Failure to complete the conversion was costly for the home team as the visitors from Long Island came back to score on a blocked punt and make good their conversion try.

Travelling to Boston the following week, the 'Cats met and bowed to a highly-rated Northeastern team. Although they player well throughout the game, the Bates eleven was not quite strong enough to stop the Huskies who won 19-0.

Before a homecoming crowd the Bobcats opened State Series play against Maine. The Black Bears jumped off to an early 14-0 lead before a Bob Atwater to Ernie Ern pass clicked for the first Garnet score and the only one of the day. Outclassed the rest of the way, the Bobcats dropped this one 37-7.

In the second Series game at Bowdoin the Bates eleven dropped a 38-13 decision in a tussle much closer than the score indicated.

Carletti, D. Ray, P. Perry, R. Southwick, P. Kenney.

The Bobcats were first to score as Chumbook raced to the end zone in the first period. Two Bowdoin counters put the 'Cats behind at halftime, however, and a second half splurge ensured a Bowdoin victory. The second Garnet touchdown came in the final minute on an Atwater to Dan Barrows pass.

Going into the Colby game in the unfamiliar role as favorites the Bobcats finished the season at Waterville.. Snow and rain made playing conditions difficult as Bates failed in their final bid 12-13. Atwater and Morton tallied for the 'Cats, and a last play Atwater to Morton pass was completed, but the big back fell just short of the goal.

Injuries to key players hurt the team which was not strong to begin with. Most important of the losses were Art Paton whose leg injury kept him out of Series games after a superb first half of the season at a tackle post, and Paul Barbera who was side-lined during several games. Dave Higgins was lost for the Colby game.

The forward wall was a good one as end Ralph Froio played his usual brand of ball despite being bothered by a bad knee, and Larry Hubbard put in some surprisingly good performances as a sophomore starter at the other end. Ralph Vena and Bud DiMaria stopped the opposition from their tackle slots and Barbera, Mike DeSalle, and Dick Barton capably filled the guard posts. Sophomore Bob Dunn held down the center position.

Only four men, DiMaria, Vena, Bob Greenberg, and Louis Rose are lost to the team by graduation. With the bulk of the eleven made up of experienced juniors the outlook should be a little brighter for another year.

At the close of the season DiMaria and Chumbook were honored by being named to the All-Maine team. Chumbook and Morton were named co-captains for 1954.

Coach Walt Slovenski fielded an undefeated freshman squad which went through its three games winning two and tying the Colby Frosh 6-6. Wins came over Bridgton Academy 7-0, and Hebron Academy 19-12. The squad was defensively strong, but weak on offense.

Chumbook scores for Bates.

Basketball

A tough 24 game schedule produced a long winter for coach Bob Addison and his hapless five. Severe losses in manpower throughout the season greatly hampered the chances of moulding a steady unit at any time during the season.

First blow was the loss of Bob Chumbook, counted on by Addison for his rebounding ability, due to an injury incurred during the football season. The greatest loss was that of George Schroder, high scoring Captain and rebounding ace, who was drafted at mid season.

On the brighter side of the picture was the play of Ted Ward and Bob Dunn who lived up to preseason expectations. The improved play of the only senior on the club, Lynn Willsey, and the surprising work of Tom Moore as a rebounder and scorer added greatly to the team. Don Smith, Gene Taylor, Pep Gilman, and Jim Riopel filled out the depleted Bobcat ranks.

The season opened on the home court against a highly rated Brandeis five that had little trouble staying ahead of the Bobcats. A home and home series with the University of New Hampshire resulted in a double licking for the Bates five as they were unable to stop the Wildcats on either court.

In the State Series opener at Bowdoin the improved Bears were hard-pressed to pull out a four point victory over coach Addison's charges. This game was followed by losses to Colby and Maine in the first round of State Series play.

Winless efforts against the University of Vermont, a good St. Michael's club and Amherst brought the Cats into the second round of State Series play.

Captain Rock.

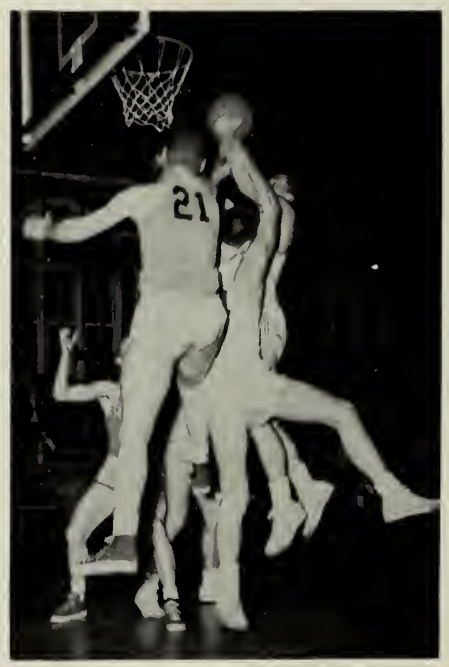
The Colby game proved to be an exciting one, but Bowdoin turned out to be too strong for the Garnet five. Playing without the services of Schroder for the first time, the Bobcats absorbed a sound beating at the hands of Maine.

A loss to Gorham State Teachers College was taken before the hoopsters finally broke the win column against Farmington State Teacher's College. This was a hard-earned victory in which the Bates club was forced to come from behind to prove itself.

Bob Dunn lays it up and in.

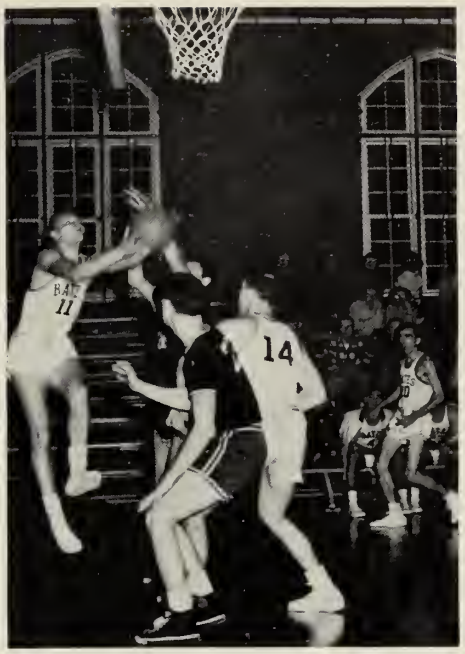
Don Smith grabs a rebound.



After successive losses to Clark, Trinity, Northeastern, Williams, Providence, and St. Anselms marred the schedule, the season reached its highest point. Among these schools were numbered some of the better clubs in New England small college ball. In a return match on the home court with Northeastern's Huskies the Bobcats turned in an upset win before an enthusiastic crowd of rooters.

The final round of State Series play came and went leaving the Garnet winless in Series play. Hardest to take of these three losses was the heartbreaking home loss to Maine by a single basket margin.

Coach Lloyd Lux, relieving varsity coach Bob Addison of some of the pressure on him, led a strong Frosh quintet to a successful season to compensate in part for the dismal varsity record. Jack Hartleb was the brightest spot on the freshman roster playing the role of leading scorer, rebounder, and defensive player. Dick Sullivan and Dick Walton added strength to the team with their steady all-around play and scoring ability to help the club compile an eight and five record. A strong evenly balanced team gave future varsity prospects some hope.



Schroder drives for a lay up

The Frosh were a small but fast team of good ball handlers and smooth passers. Although they played good ball when the pressure was on them, they were somehow jinxed in the late stages of the close games and dropped some important games in overtime.

Track

One of the strongest varsity track squads in many a year put in an indoor season of exciting meets winning two and losing four closely fought contests while dropping one decisive dual. Willingness to work under coach Walt Slovenski and a drive to win on the part of each individual paid off great dividends as the tracksters accumulated much interest with their efforts.

A pleasantly surprising upset win over the University of Maine got the season off on the right foot for coach Slovenski's charges. Winning tosses in the hammer and the discus by Captain Ed Holmes were matched in point total by Doug Fay's 600 and 300 yard run victories. Other firsts were captured by Roger Schmutz in his 1000 yard specialty and Fred Beck in the broad jump. A tie for first in the high jump by Stan Barwise gave four more valuable points. Just as important as the firsts were the second and third places taken by Garnet performers.

In their second encounter, the 'Cats put up a tremendous battle before bowing to a stronger University of New Hampshire team. Taking seven of the possible 13 firsts, the Garnet track men were unable to take enough of the runner-up spots to come up with the win.

John Lind clears the bar at 12 feet.

Northeastern was given a good scare by the tracksters as they were forced to go all out to just barely edge the Bobcats. Turning in some fine performances, the Bates men ran one of those "almost, but not quite" meets which was not decided until the last event was over.

Another close match occurred against Bowdoin as strategy on the part of coach Slovenski failed to overcome the depth advantage held by the Bears.

The only decisive loss of the season came at the hands of Tufts, perennial New England track power. The 'Cats put on a performance to be proud of against the superior Jumbos with the brightest spot on the Garnet side being John Lind's 12 foot pole vault, the first time he had reached that height in a meet.

The following week the tracksters turned around to pin an even more decisive defeat on the Colby aggregate to end the indoor season. Facing approximately the same schedule in the spring the Bobcats made a good outdoor showing. Middlebury and the University of Vermont were the only additions to the spring schedule.

The Frosh tracksters duplicated the varsity record of two wins and four losses as they faced a totally college schedule eliminating the high school meets which have dominated the schedule of past years. Wins came against the University of New Hampshire and Colby as the yearlings ran the same schedule as the upperclassmen. Toughest to take of the losses was a one point defeat by the Northeastern frosh.

Captain Emmett

With a strong battery, a good infield, and an outfield of unknown quantity and variety coach Bob Hatch and his Bobcat tossers faced a rugged season. Left hander Fred Jack, outstanding with the freshmen a year previous, bore the brunt of the pitching burden and was called upon to fill in in other spots. His battery mate, Bob Reny, was with the varsity for his second year.

The infield was made up of one sophomore and three juniors. The sophomore starter was Bob Dunn, a first sacker who took an occasional try on the mound. The keystone sack was held down by Captain Bob "Emmett" Atwater who teamed with Spence Hall at short to give the Garnet an infield strong down the middle. Gary Burke played the hot corner for the second year.

Intramurals

Walt and Tony make plans.

Interest in Intramurals remained at a high pitch during the year as well-matched teams competed hotly for the touch football, basketball, and softball titles. In the fall, J.B. and South emerged undefeated victors of their respective leagues. A play-off gave the crown to the powerful J.B. squad.

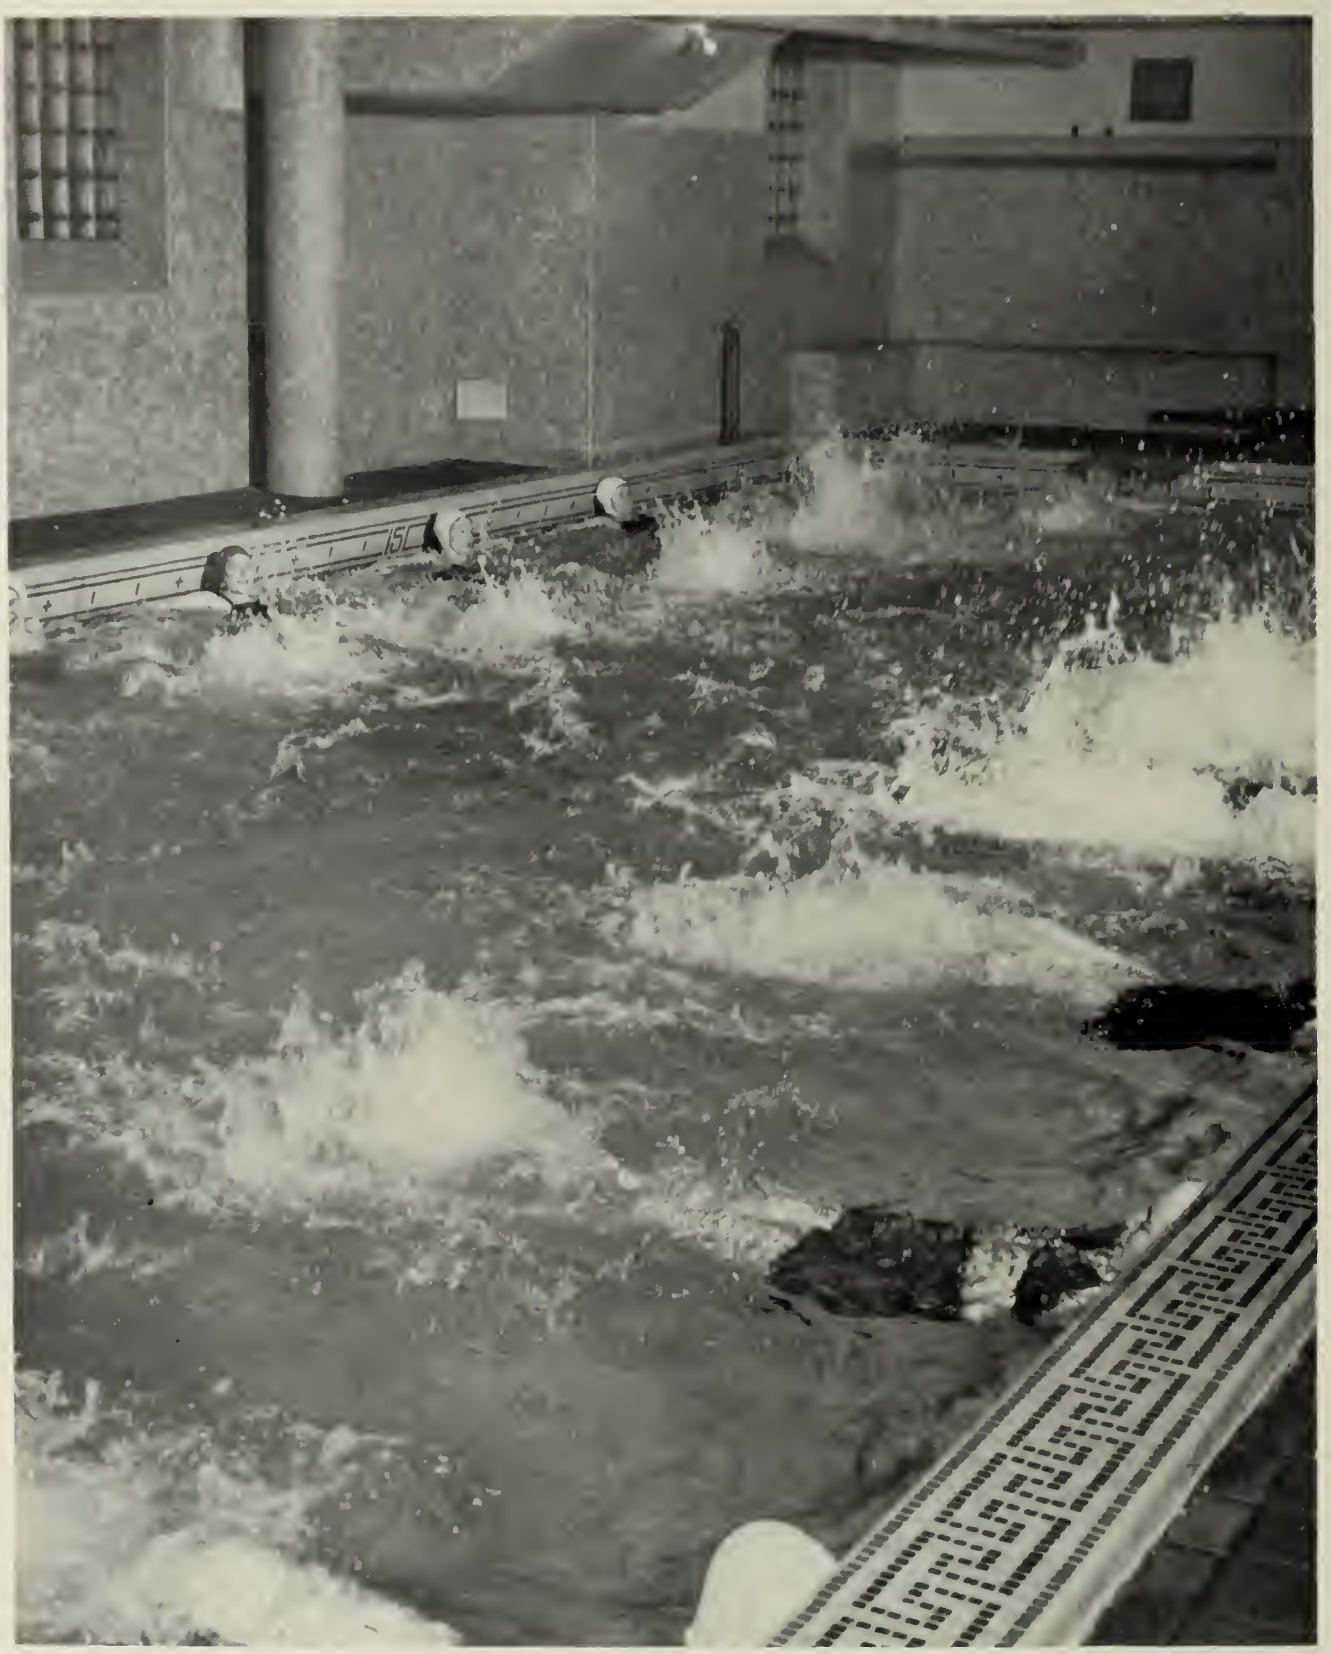
The large number of entries for the basketball season forced division of teams into three different leagues divided as nearly as could be judged according to ability of the respective personnel. Each team met the others in their league twice to decide play-off berths. Walt Koball's Roger Bill club, defending champs of the Intramural circuit wound up in a tie with Sam Kozak's Bardwell entry in the strong American League. A tie resulted in the National League also as Mitchell and Gil Grimes' J.B. club finished with identical records. Bardwell's International League combine topped that circuit.

The play-offs saw Kozak's Bardwell five sweep by Roger Bill in the first round of play while Mitchell won the right to meet that team in the semi-finals by edging J.B. The second Bardwell team drew a bye. Easy victories were posted by Kozak's five as they swept to the title. ,

Equally as exciting was the spring softball season that produced a variety of thrills in several close games. The Intramural program run by Tony Kugeman and C. Ray Thompson allowed fun for all who took part in any one of its three phases.

Bardwell's Basketball Champs: K. Sargent, S. Kozak, A. Kafka, J. Davis, H. Usala.

Fighting for a rebound.



Women's Athletics

Organization of the program presented each year by the Women's Athletic Association is based on the idea of developing well-coordinated college women. To attain this goal, a variety of sports is sponsored in five major seasons.

The winter season seemed to be the peak of the sports year, with dormitory teams battling fiercely for the basketball trophy. A hard fought playoff game between East and West Parker resulted in East's winning the title by a 36-32 score.

The early spring season featured volleyball and once again the activity was held on an inter-dorm basis.

Apart from the sports schedule itself, WAA has scored in presenting other programs of general campus interest this year. Health Week was climaxed by the choosing of Priscilla Hatch as Betty Bates, the typical coed, on the basis of a pleasing personality, good health, participation in athletics, friendliness, grooming and poise.

Colby and the University of Maine were guests at the fall Play Day held at Bates with hockey, volleyball and badminton contests featured.

Twenty-five participants in the Jackson ski trip received expert information and supervision from a professional instructor. WAA again offered women the chance to enjoy a weekend at Casco Inn featuring hiking, skiing, tobogganing, skating and delicious home cooked meals.

The Swim Club, organized last year, presented the synchronized water ballet "Spring Time Serenade" under the direction of Lynn Watson and Edie-Ellen Greene.

WAA BOARD. first row: J. Smith, A. Chick, A. Flynn. Second row: R. Burger, D. Turner, M. Connell, N. Cole, A. Arace.

SEASON AND SPORT MANAGERS, first row: R. Burger, N. Metcalfe, A. Chick, J. Smith, A. Flynn, M. Beaulieu. Second row: E. McLeod, D. Turner, D. Hirst, R. Haskins, M. Connell, J. Hodgkins, M. Harbeck.

Seniors

It isn't that bad, fellas.

The roaring twenties.

"I am a lowly amoeba . . ."

Someone got wet.

Remember how your rooms looked that night?

"Has anybody here seen Goldy?"

Parker just isn't the same anymore.

"Hail Pericles Pappas."

We haven't really changed much, have we?

Motorists beware!

Through the Years

Ciro's a la Bates.

"The eyes of Texas are upon you."

Well, it's a woman's world.

The Monster.

It's Dynamite! It's Lymelyght!

The May Day Vigilantes.

Our Betty Bates.

Can't all be athletic.

Ooops!

And who does your hair?

Be there no place so humble . . .

There's nothing like a Blast.

Good, huh?

What's the joke, Harry?

If we didn't learn another thing at least we learned how to play bridge!

The Rand hello.

Let's have a party.

IVY DAY ODE

O thou, our hopes of heights, the ivy slender,
Grow strong and steadfast from your well-fed shoots
And show the world your leafy, em'rald splendor.

Sink slow, secure, your eager, restless roots
And taste the long awaited fond caress
Of Mother Earth who proffers priceless loots.

Drink deep the toast to future high success
And gain new strength upon which you may grow
To weather sound the storms of great duress.

Let sap form free and give your tendrils glow.
Set forth the first near bricks the season's gain
And then push proud from your commencement slow.

Your firm foundation shall not be in vain
And will protect you on the upward climb
Battl'ing the boist'rous blows and wrenching rains.

Throughout the season with their pass of time,
Reach ever higher on your gainful grope
From Mother Earth to Heaven's heights sublime.

As you are set at your appointed slope,
We plant ideas and ideals tender
And dedicate a symbol of our hopes.

O thou, our hopes of heights, the ivy slender,
Grow strong and steadfast from your well-fed shoots
And show the world your leafy, em'rald splendor.
